PI DAY

Monday, March 14 is Pi Day. The Middle School students will study the origin of pi and its mathematical significance in calculating all things circular.

Middle School classes are requesting a few “pie” donations to add to the celebration during lunch hour. If you are willing to donate a pie, please email Mrs. Barnes at lindsay.barnes@capitaldayschool.net.

NATIONAL GEOGRAPHIC BEE

Our school level winner of the National Geographic Bee, Monon Rahman, qualified to represent CDS and participate in state level competition on April 1, at Western Kentucky University. Because he will be participating in the Key Largo field study trip on that date, he will not be able to attend, however.

FIFTH GRADE PERFORMANCES

Performances for the Fifth Grade play, "Speed: The Story of Atalanta" are scheduled for

- Friday Mar.11, 9:15-9:45 a.m.,
- Monday Mar.14, 12:50-1:20 p.m., and
- Friday Mar. 18, 9:15-9:45 a.m..

Performances will be in the Multi-Purpose room. Parents are invited to attend.

A CAPITAL AFFAIR

We are still tying up the remaining details from last Saturday's "A Capital Affair." There will be an ad in this Sunday's State Journal to recognize our donors. We have expenses to pay, but it looks like we will clear more than $10,000 when all is concluded. Thanks to the donors, attendees, and volunteers who helped to make the event a success.

CONTRACTS

Open enrollment for students who are not presently at the school has begun. Contracts have been transmitted to the parents of students who have already screened.

SUMMER PROGRAM

Open enrollment for our Summer Program begins March 14 for families outside of CDS. If you are interested in having your child or children attend the summer program, please complete the enrolment form (previously sent) for each child, and return it with your $115 deposit to the office to reserve space for your child. If you have questions, please e-mail Kris Murphy at krissietwo@yahoo.com.
